

SIMPLICITY

I'm rich to be wild, letting life give me advice
Oh it's the freedom I am building, all elements interconnecting
Complexity, duality, blinding from reality
Oh just feel the vibes, enjoy simplicity

Tiny things can look bigger than they are
Do I really know what I'm claiming so far

Smelling whole life, understanding,
Everyday's a lesson, question, answer, scanning everything
Truth got no objection
You know the mirror only shows a reflection
Everyone has a point of view
But the truth can always be seen
We're all the same
Without any kind of doctrine

Tiny things can look bigger than they are
Do I really know what I'm claiming so far

I was born to be wild, letting life give me advice
Oh it's the freedom I am building, all elements interconnecting
Complexity, duality, blinding from reality
Just feel the vibes, enjoy simplicity
